Principal's Perspectives

Dear Northwest Christian School Family,

The time is now upon us to solidify our planning for next school year. Next week is your opportunity to secure a seat in your child's classroom for the 2024-25 school year. I cannot stress enough how important it is to take advantage of registration next week. Over the past several weeks, our school has received dozens of calls and conducted many tours for perspective new students. Next weeks registration is closed to new applicants, and open only for you, our current NCS family members.

In addition to saving $75 on your registration fees by registering next week, you will also save yourself the headache of scrambling, and the possibility of losing your child's placement to a new applicant.

Registering early will also provide you the opportunity to financially plan for next year. One of the big projects that occurs behind the scenes during this time of year is the NCS finance committee's work on calculating total cost of operations and setting next year's tuition. I'm sure it will not come as a surprise to hear that our school has, like so many other businesses in our area, been heavily impacted by inflation and rising wage mandates. After much hard work and creative accounting, our finance committee has set next year tuition at a rate that will enable us to maintain current staffing levels and programming expectations. It is our continuing commitment to offer NCS kids small class sizes, high staff/student ratios, and an abundance of learning resources.

We are currently managing waiting lists in several of our classrooms. We have every expectation this will carryover into next year. My advice to you is to strike while the iron is hot and get your kiddos registered next week!
